Prior to 6 December, the barracks installation in Rosslau was occupied by about 5,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery, rotor transport and signal insignia, and black-bordered black epaulets. Between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. on 2 December, march practice and drill were performed in the barracks area. Ten groups each consisting of 1 NCC and 4 soldiers and other groups each of 6 troops were training with 82-mm mortars and 120-mm mortars respectively in the area northwest of the installation. Similar training was observed on 3 December. Five platoons each of 28 soldiers arred with rifles and carrying practice targets marched toward Rohrwinkel. Between 9 a.r. and 11 a.m. on 6 December, marksmanship training with carbines and training with 3 x 120-mm mortars was held in the area north of the installation.
